September is here, and it is also the month when summer ends, and fall begins. Kids are back to school and hopefully, it will cool off a little bit. We have a couple of things on the horizon as we go through September; Operation Christmas Child will be in full swing, and we need to look ahead to Trunk or Treat with the kids of Elida. It is a great way to be present in our community by interacting with our neighbors in a positive way.

Thank you to everyone who has helped over the past few weeks with all the funerals we have faced. It seems like we are going through a dark time with all the losses we have faced individually, and as a church. I cling to the promise of God that we will not be alone as we are traveling through the valley of the shadow of death. I keep moving, knowing God will always hold us up, one step at a time.

We are finishing up our Children's Bible story series, and in September, we will begin a new series about God and Tractors. You may say, how are God and tractors related? You will have to tune in to see how the series will unfold. We will spend some time looking at being stuck in a rut, and how God can help us clean up around our life. We will look at all the tools we have available. Finally, we will look at harvesting and how amazing using the right combine will improve the harvest. I look forward to seeing how God and tractors go together and where it will lead us.

Until then, I will see you in the mission field.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Paul

Thought for the Month:

The beautiful thing about learning is nobody can take it away from you.

POMEGRANATE

Because the pomegranate has an abundance of seeds, the fruit is used to represent hope and future life. It also symbolizes the many believers who are individual members of the universal Christian church.

Upcoming Events for St. Paul's

Chancel Choir Returns!

We are gearing up for another year of St. Paul's Chancel Choir to add to the worship experience on Sunday mornings. Our first rehearsal will be Wednesday, August 31, 2022, at 7:00 PM in the choir room. Our first worship performance will be Sunday, September 11, 2022, at 10:00 AM. All former members are welcomed back and any newcomers will be greeted with enthusiasm.

Scripture from Colossians 3:16 says: "Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts." Join us for the discipline of preparing God's messages to learn, rethink, and remind ourselves of His ways.

We sing, pray, and almost always spend time with joy and laughter of one kind or another. We are blessed to serve and grow as Christians in this way. We ask for your prayers to support our mission. Bless YOU and all your support in the past years to encourage and help us. May God bless St. Paul's this coming year!

Poem

The Women's Bible Study group has some very special moments-both serious and not so serious. The following piece came from one of our members, Lois Messner, who composed it and was willing to share with our congregation.

Bride of Promise

By Lois Messner

I cannot fathom or understand your love for me,
But I will bathe in it's expression,
And allow it's fragrance to penetrate my soul,
That all will know I have been chosen by my beloved.
Oh, how I desire your touch, to see your face!
How long must I linger before you come for me!
All around I gaze at the evidence you left behind,
I am consoled with your words and promise.
I hear of your acts of kindness, your display of power,
And I need to proclaim your magnificent works.
Your reputation precedes your returning.
I know you are making ready my home; do not tarry long.
Your wealth boundless, but it's your presence I cherish.
My heart aches for the taunters with no lovers,
The disbelievers with no promise.
Why do they despise what they really desire.
Ridicule what they do not possess?
Soon they will realize they are no match for my beloved,
Their destruction for declaring me a fool is imminent;
When you claim your bride of promise before all the world.

Women's Bible Study

We learn so much from our studies, as our leader, Kathy Waldick, invests a tremendous amount of time researching the scripture we study and as a long time Bible Study leader, she brings a new perspective to help us think about scripture in a new way. We also never fail to find something to laugh about. You are welcome to join us anytime. We are currently studying the book of Isaiah, but will interrupt that for a bit to go through "The Prayer of Jabez." The study will begin September 8, 2022.

As an example, last week we revisited Satan in Ezekiel to be reminded of the following:

Ezekiel 28:13

*"You were in Eden, the garden of God;
Every precious stone was your covering:
The ruby, the topaz and the diamond;
The beryl, the onyx and the jasper;
The lapis lazuli, the turquoise and the emerald;
And the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets,
Was in you.
On the day that you were created
They were prepared.*

Ezekiel 28:14

*"You were the anointed cherub who covers,
And I placed you there.
You were on the holy mountain of God;
You walked in the midst of the stones of fire.*

Ezekiel 28:15

*"You were blameless in your ways
From the day you were created
Until unrighteousness was found in you.*

Ezekiel 28:16

*"By the abundance of your trade
You were internally filled with violence,
And you sinned;
Therefore I have cast you as profane
From the mountain of God.
And I have destroyed you, O covering cherub,
From the midst of the stones of fire.*

Ezekiel 28:17

*"Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty;
You corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor.
I cast you to the ground;
I put you before kings,
That they may see you.*

So in examining this scripture we are reminded that God created Satan to be a most beautiful angel. He was adorned with every beautiful jewel. But the sin of pride, due to his beauty, caused him to be corrupted and thus began a different course for him. It is important to think on these things. Join us on Thursdays from 2:00 to 4:00 in the room by the office for a rich time of study, relationship, and just plain fun.

It Only Takes A Spark

Love is the spark that kindles the fire of compassion. Compassion is the fire that flames the candle of service. Service is the candle that ignites the torch of hope. Hope is the torch that lights the beacon of faith. Faith is the beacon that reflects the power of God. God is the power that creates the miracle of love.

Prayer

Casting Prayers

By Corinne Piper

Years ago, during a Lakeside Institute week, two of our teenagers led devotions that involved "Casting Prayers." It was a prayer time that stayed with many for years. "Casting prayer" works best around a body of water and since this is a time of year when many of us are relaxing around lakes, rivers, or the ocean, maybe it will be a prayer form that speaks to you. The following description comes from Prayer for People Who Can't Sit Still by William Tenny-Brittian.

1. If you are carrying sin, pain, confusion, or anxiety, take a marker to a place that gives you peace and has enough space to throw a rock, REALLY hard.
2. Spend time looking for the right rock while you think about your concerns.
3. Settle and become centered. Write your issues on the rock(s). Think about the causes, needs, and solutions to your thoughts, and make the rock you hold the embodiment of your problems.
4. Cast or throw that rock as far away from you as you can, and believe you are throwing that burden out of your life.
5. Now for the hard part, for those of us who can't sit still: SIT STILL! Attend to any emotions: freedom, loss, relief... Listen for God to tell you what to do now that the rock is out of your soul.
6. Wait for a few more minutes. Wait with an empty mind. Just sit with God.
7. If you still feel burdened, repeat the prayer sequence another time or on another day.

A variation of this prayer for those who are campfire types is to write your thoughts on paper and cast them into the fire. Feel your spirit rise with the smoke.

Putting our prayers into a concrete form and getting rid of that object is an effective way to feel the prayer. Try it out as you enjoy the last of this summer.

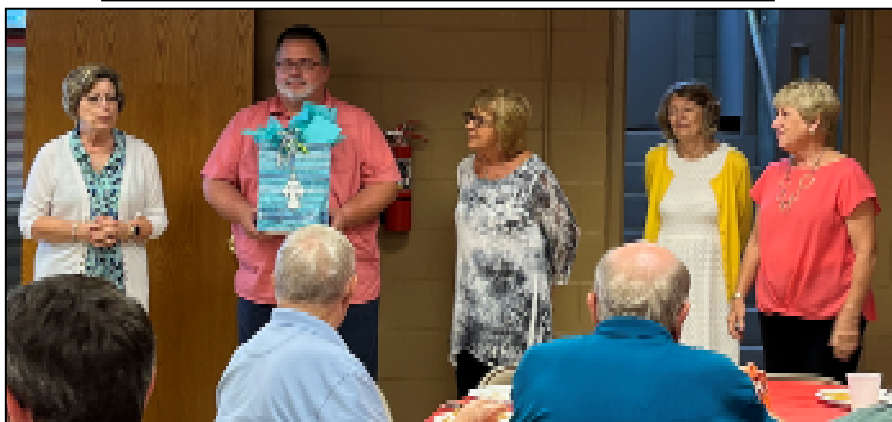

As you come back to church in the fall, join me for prayer at 9:30 AM Sundays in the Prayer Room as we intercede for those on our prayer lists.

Farewell

A recognition and farewell luncheon
on August 14th.

Many Blessings to
the White Family
as they move on to this new phase
of retirement.

Thank You!

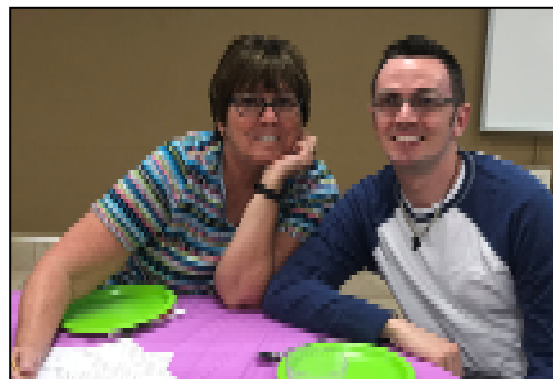

In the closing scene of the Wizard of Oz, the Wizard says to the Tin Man: "And remember, my sentimental friend, that a heart is not judged by how much you love, but by how much you are loved by others." All of us in the Elida, Ohio White House were immensely touched and overwhelmed by the outpouring of affection and well-wishes during and after the Sunday service on August 14. It was both joyous and sad to reminisce over so many events and activities shared with so many friends and fellow parishioners at St. Paul these past 29 years. As the saying goes, one never truly knows how well he/she has it until it exists no more. While our membership at St. Paul has ended, the fond memories will live forever - we have been blessed and are grateful for our place in the community of St. Paul.

While our altar decorations have been a recent highlight, so many other challenges and opportunities come to mind when looking back: liturgist; Re-Focus; bell choir; ramps & roofs; committee work; service-time skits directed by past Choir Director Nancy Bushong; fair chairs; cantata narrator; Koinonia Class. While these events/activities, among others, helped us grow personally and spiritually, they also spoke to the outreach and fellowship that is Elida St. Paul!

Many thanks to Deb Hurd, Pastor Paul, and Jamie Wyant for our special recognition during the August 14 service. Many thanks to Judy Chaffins, Corinne Piper, the Worship Committee, and all others associated with the after-service carry-in and parting gifts. And we are equally thankful to those who sent cards or donated to the carry-in and offered well-wishes. To place a twist on Pastor Paul's Book of Daniel preaching this date, our membership with and participation in the community of St. Paul was 'the right thing to do' and has created fond and lasting memories.

We will miss you.....be well....Marty, Kathy, AJ, Nick, Kim, Emma, Julia, Tim, Katie, Jack, Drew, Anne (and Zack, Katie, Allison via Internet) White.

St. Paul's,

Thank you very much for everything that was provided by everyone; Linda and Lois, for the music; The ladies, for all the food; Scott, Judy, and Jamie, for the sound and taping of the service. Last but not least, Gail for all you do for the church and for me. Thank you, also for the beautiful wind chimes!

Jean May, Karla May
Kelly and Dave Noonan
Karin and Mike Soddors, and Families

Dear Friends from St. Paul,

Thank you all for your many expressions of sympathy. They were most comforting. Your wind chimes are ringing in the big round flower bed outside of our dining room window. You are all a blessing to us.

Lots of Love,
Janet and Gary Grigg

St. Paul's United Methodist Church Congregation,

Susan and I would like to thank you for the beautiful flowers that you sent Evelyn during her stay in long-term care at Otterbein. Thank you also for the flowers that you sent her while living in her Independent Living Home at Otterbein. We appreciate that the congregation kept her in their thoughts, sending her cards and letters after she moved from her "Little Red House on Diller Road". I know she missed attending and participating in church activities as she once was able.

Sincerely,
John and Susan Sarber

Living Our Faith

Ways to walk

If you think walking is boring or repetitive, read 52 Ways to Walk. Author Annabel Streets shares dozens of variations on this healthy pastime. From walking in the cold or at altitude to walking along a river or barefoot (or even backward!), each technique offers different benefits and new perspectives. Other ideas include a sensory walk, a silent walk, a foraging walk and singing while strolling. As Christians know, walking can be a great time to connect with God in prayer too.

Scripture speaks often about our spiritual walk: We are to walk “faithfully” with God (Genesis 5:24, NIV), walk “in all his ways” (Joshua 22:5, NRSV), walk “humbly” with God (Micah 6:8), walk “while you have the light” (John 12:35), walk while praising God (Acts 3:8), walk “by faith, not by sight” (2 Corinthians 5:7), walk “by the Spirit” (Galatians 5:16) and walk “in the same way” as Jesus walked (1 John 2:6, NRSV).

As we walk — even through dark valleys — we’re never alone. God promises, “I will walk among you and be your God” (Leviticus 26:12, NIV).

—Stephanie Marti
